

Stacy Napoles is a seasoned Trainer and Course Developer with over 28 years of education experience. She has extensive experience in delivering corporate training in a classroom setting to various audiences on a large variety of topics. She began her career as a classroom teacher where she developed curriculum, led a team and created after school and outreach programs for children.

In 2007 she became Director of Coaching and Development for a large healthcare staffing firm. While in this role Stacy created sales, leadership, and career development programs as well as a stellar onboarding program for new hires. Her coaching experience with all levels of leadership gives her great insight into the staffing and search industry.

Stacy is Sr. Director of Training and Development for Kaye/Bassman Inc., Sandford Rose Associates Inc. and Next Level Exchange as part of the training team. She currently sits on the Education and Certification committee for the American Staffing Association and has the opportunity to collaborate and share best practices with peers in the training industry.

Stacy graduated in 1991 from Stephen F. Austin State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education and a minor in Music. She resides in Plano, TX with her husband Sean and their two Labrador retrievers Cal and Yardley.
